FROM THE PRESIDENT By Debbie Morrow

Hi All,

We had our first meeting 2nd Saturday at Just off Main and we had a good turn out, even with the Grapefest festival going on. I am hoping that October will be an even better turn out. We are looking for another location in the area and are hoping to keep it on the 3rd Sunday like it was before. Allison Archer one of our members has been looking a lot and keeping me up to date on her findings. Thank you for all of your effort Allison. At this time it's still 2nd Saturday October 12 at just off Main in Grapevine.

Fall is upon us and the Texas weather is beautiful. It's a good time to hit the bluegrass circuit. We have a lot of events coming up.

One of my favorites is the Bloomin Bluegrass festival and Chili Cook -off, in Farmers Branch October 18-19th.

It's one of my favorite outside events because the weather is usually great and it's a big open area with lots of room to lay out a blanket on the grass and pull up the lawn chairs and just relax and let music surround you. The whole family, kids, grand kids friends and family can come and it's free admission. How great is that? I hope to see you there. I'll be there right after work on Friday and all day Saturday.

On a different note I want to ask if anyone is thinking about taking over the publishing of our newsletter. Dennis is no longer going to be doing this after the December newsletter which has been announced. We haven't had a single person inquire that I am aware of and this is really important. I hope we hear from someone about this soon.

As always, My prayer is that our club will be around many more generations and our Grandchildren will be playing music together. My vision for the club going forward is Good Bluegrass Music, Good Bands, Good Jams, Good Fellowship and of course Great Food. God Bless, Deb

Southwest Bluegrass Club
Masters of Bluegrass Concert - November 16th

The Southwest Bluegrass Club has secured two nationally recognized bands of enormous accomplishment for the November 16, 2013 McKinney Performing Arts Center concert

Lou Reid and Carolina
(Union Grove, North Carolina)

Lou Reid is a former winner of the IBMA Emerging Artist of the Year Award and he is arguably the most recognizable voice in Bluegrass music. Lou started as a bass player with Doyle Lawson and Quicksilver, played banjo on the first #1 Country hit to feature a banjo (Ricky Skagg's Thank God I'm A Country Boy), played guitar and sang high tenor with The Seldom Scene, and currently plays mandolin and sings lead both with the Seldom Scene and with his own band Lou Reid and Carolina.

Lou Reid and Carolina won the 2010 SPBGMA Song of the Year for the song Amanda Lynn, and in 2011 they received a GMA Dove Award's Song of the Year nomination for the song It's So Hard To Stumble (when you're down on your knees).

The band has had three #1 and many other top hits on the Bluegrass charts.

The group has recently added guitarist extraordinaire and great bass/baritone singer Skip Cherryholmes to the group. Skip's family band The Cherryholmes were IBMA Entertainers of the Year in 2005 and had several Grammy nominations for Best Bluegrass Album (2006, 2007, and 2008).

The Byron Berline Band (Guthrie, Oklahoma)

The band provides an upbeat and creative blend of Bluegrass, Western Swing, and more.

Byron's accomplishments include being a three-time National Fiddle Champion as well as a member of three-time IBMA Instrumental Group of the Year (California). He was nominated for two Grammy Awards for his solo album Fiddle and a Song.

Byron's early career included playing fiddle with bluegrass legends such as Bill Monroe, Dillard and Clark, and Country Gazette. His long list of performing and recording credits includes The Rolling Stones, The Eagles, The Band, The Byrds, Elton John, Alabama, Mary Chapin Carpenter, The Flying Burrito Brothers, Rod Stewart, John Denver, Earl Scruggs, Emmylou Harris, Tammy Wynette, Mason Williams, Bob Dylan, Willie Nelson and Vince Gill. He also has extensive television and movie sound track credits and has appeared in Star Trek, Blaze, Back To The Future III, and Basic Instinct.

The rest of his musicians are excellent as well and have won awards and played with many noted bands and stars in the industry.

A flyer (SEE PAGE 8) for this concert is included in this newsletter, and we encourage everyone to buy your tickets early and enjoy a really great show.

If you would like to volunteer to help our club the day of the show, please contact Bill Kline at 903-337-0950. We really could use some help.

CLUB NEWS

NEW APPOINTED DIRECTOR -

Buzz Busby has been confirmed as Director by the General membership at the September meeting. .*

Dennis Hillery Resigning as Newsletter Editor

Effective December 2nd

I have been the Bluegrass Reflections Newsletter editor since February 2006 and, except for a year and a half; have published 80 newsletter issues including this issue. The December 2013 issue will be the last one I will do. I am resigning as Editor with December 2nd as the official resignation date. The December issue will have been published and sent by that date. My decision to relieve myself of that responsibility is final.

We now need to have you to share your talents and take over the Editor position. For whoever does agree to take the job of Editor, if they need or want my help, I'll be willing to show them how I produce the newsletter and publish it. All that's needed to do the job is some familiarity with the Microsoft Word program.

All members are encouraged to step forward and volunteer to take on this job of Editor. If you know of someone who might be interested in volunteering, please talk to them and ask them to step forward and check out whether they might take on the job. If you like receiving a newsletter like this, you get to receive it only if someone takes over the job. If there's no Editor, there's no Newsletter. There's a saying about "no free lunches"...

Dennis's countdown to Editor Retirement, OCTOBER ISSUE, NOVEMBER ISSUE, and DECMEBER ISSUE. JUST 2 MORE ISSUES until my retirement as Editor.

You can contact any of the Officers or Staff listed on page 2 to volunteer.

It will be a great concert, but will only be a success if we get the support from all members of our club.

Buy a ticket for you, members of your family and friends. These are two bands who will not only please the hardcore Bluegrass enthusiast, but will also please general audiences. They are both incredible and offer lots of variety.

Usually people who are not hardcore Bluegrass enthusiasts don't want to sit thru five bands and ten hours of music. This concert is different. Our concert should only last around three hours. It is my opinion that those who attend out of curiosity about our music will not get bored, but leave with a smile on their face and a desire to listen to more of our music and attend more of our events. This a chance to bring those who normally would not want to go, with the confidence that they will thank you for sharing it with them. Take advantage of this, support your club, and see a fantastic show at the same time.

Spread the word. Print off a flyer and share it with others. I have already bought nine tickets myself.

If you are attending and want to help out at the show with ticket collection and ushering, please call or email me.

Thanks.

In Memory of Don Humphery

Don Humphery, 73, passed away September 17 in Glen Rose after a long illness. Don was born in Paris, Texas and migrated to Glen Rose in 1986. He worked at Oakdale park for about two years before changing to hospital maintenance. He retired from Walls Hospital in Cleburne in 2004. He was married to his wife B.J for 54 years and had 3 boys.

Don was an avid Bluegrass fan. He played the banjo and mandolin. We was in the "Outcast Bluegrass" band of Pittsburg, Tx. before coming to Glen Rose. He joined the "Friends and Neighbors" band and played with them until the group broke up several years later. I remember Don and the group opening for Mac Wiseman at the amphitheater in Glen Rose years ago. His last group was "Southridge" until he was unable to play.

You could always find Don in a jam session. His last one was in his hospital room just 2 days before he died. You could hear Roger Starns banjo ringing all the way down the hall. What a send off!

Together, these two supremely talented pickers play with a rapport that is nothing short of uncanny. This is partly because the quality of musicianship is so high. But an even larger reason is that the picking of Mike Compton and David Grier (like that of their respective mentors) is so consistently unpredictable. The unexpected surprise may come from the way Compton takes one of his "Billisms" (as he refers to his [musical] quotes from Monroe) and stands it on its head or it may come from one of Grier's startling melodic leaps or chokes. Whatever its twists and turns, though, this is music that shows subtlety and sophistication.

Mike Compton and David Grier Special Performance

October 3rd at 7 pm at 1st United Methodist Church, Leonard Chapel, 800 W. 5th, Fort Worth, TX 76102

Contact robertjustinholt@yahoo.com

Together, these two supremely talented pickers play with a rapport that is nothing short of uncanny. This is partly because the quality of musicianship is so high. But an even larger reason is that the picking of Mike Compton and David Grier (like that of their respective mentors) is so consistently unpredictable. The unexpected surprise may come from the way Compton takes one of his "Billisms" (as he refers to his [musical] quotes from Monroe) and stands it on its head or it may come from one of Grier's startling melodic leaps or chokes. Whatever its twists and turns, though, this is music that shows subtlety and sophistication.
